

Afo Fapojuwo

Afo Fapojuwo was born and raised in Calgary, Alberta. He began learning music at the young age of five years. It wasn't until age twelve that he settled on the drum set as his main instrument. Upon high school graduation, Afo continued his musical education at Mount Royal University and then went on to earn a Jazz Performance Degree at the prestigious McGill University. His performance experience includes touring with various musical groups across Canada and the United States, performing at internationally renowned festivals such as the Montreal Jazz Festival, the Osheaga Music Festival and the Jazz de Verano located in Queretaro, Mexico. Upon returning to Calgary, Afo has managed to maintain a busy schedule of performing/teaching drum set, as well as earning a Business Administration Diploma from SAIT. Afo is excited to apply his new business skills in his new role of assistant to the Secretary Treasurer of the CMA.
