

Doug Kuss is a professional musician/composer/lyricist with over 45 years of performing experience. Originally from Saskatoon, SK, he moved to Calgary in the late 70's to pursue a career as a travelling rock drummer and vocalist with 'The Tickets', an original band that he led. During that time the band toured extensively from Vancouver Island to Toronto and he received various awards for songwriting along with his writing partner and band mate Rick Saretsky. Currently he is performing locally with his group 'The Daylights', a Top 40/Classic Rock band and recording with his original project 'Bwana and the Wannas'.

He is a 45+ year member of the American Federation of Musicians of the United States and Canada (AFM) and the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada (SOCAN).

He has served for 30 years on the Calgary Musicians Association Executive Board; 10 years as Vice-President and the last 19 as Secretary Treasurer.
