

Born & raised Calgarian, Jeff Fafard has been a freelance percussionist since graduating with a B.Mus. from the University of Calgary. He has lived in La Habana, Cuba studying at the Instituto de Superior de Arte (I.S.A.) and has been an artist in Residence at The Banff Centre. He has traveled around the world touring with various artists and playing on cruise ships, performed at the Montreal Jazz Festival and even for Cuban Television. Closer to home, Jeff has been fortunate to play with the Calgary Philharmonic, Calgary Opera, National Ballet of Canada, Theatre Calgary, The Citadel Theatre and Lunch Box Theatre. Currently he is the resident drummer for Stage West Theatre. A position he has held for over a decade now participating in over 35 productions. He is honoured to be able to represent Calgary musicians on the Executive Committee and to improve working conditions for all our fellow association members.
